Bertha Dannenberg Dies Monday

Bertha Dannenberg, age 68, died Monday, July 27, 1981. Funeral services will be held 10:00 a.m. Thursday, July 30, 1981 at Sorenson Funeral Home.

Milltown Weekend

Garage Sale to Benefit Hanson Park

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 31 and August 1 and 2, a garage sale will be held at Hanson Park in an effort to raise much needed money to carry out planned maintenance and improvement projects which have been started. Much of the money raised will be used to purchase paint which will be used to complete planned maintenance projects which must be completed prior to the ski season.

Any additional money will be used in beginning several planned improvement projects designed to turn Hanson Park into a year round community recreation center. Included in those plans are ball diamonds...a horse show arena, picnic areas, shuffleboard courts, a volleyball area, basketball goals and horse shoe pits.

Everyone is cordially invited to come to the park sometime during the weekend and look over the items which are for sale and also look over the improvements that have been made to the park thus far. Also, anyone who would be willing to donate items for the sale may bring them to the park any time.

Fish Hatchery Eyed as Tourist Site

FUTURE TOURIST ATTRACTION?—A Grayling group would like to reopen the Grayling Fish Hatchery as a tourist attraction stocked with trophy-size trout.

By Jon Thompson

Grayling has moved one step closer to adding raceways stocked with trophy-size trout to its list of natural tourist attractions that include the well-known Hartwick Pines and Kirtland's warbler.

The Grayling Fish Hatchery Preservation Committee has presented a proposal to the regional DNR headquarters in Roscommon to reopen the Grayling Fish Hatchery as a tourist attraction.

The preservation committee wants to stock old DNR raceways along the East Branch of the Ausable with large brown, brook, and rainbow trout.

"It's a great location," Bob Smock, Jr., a spokesman for the group, said. "It's close to both downtown and I-75. The whole area could benefit from another tourist attraction like this."

DNR regional director John MacGregor said he thought the DNR would be able to work with the preservation committee but said they must get together with the DNR to work on specific plans.

The preservation committee first has to submit a use permit for the raceways, owned by the state of Michigan. Then, if the Chief of the Fish Division of the DNR approves the use permit, MacGregor said the DNR would probably supply the game fish to stock the raceways.

Once in operation, Smock says pay fish-feeding machines could bring enough money to offset any costs of caring for the fish. A fish tourist attraction in Paris, Michigan, also located in a former DNR fish hatchery, nets about $5,000 a year from coin fish-feeding machines. Smock said because of the number of tourists that travel I-75 and visit Grayling, $5,000 to $10,000 might be raised each year from the feeding machines at Grayling.

Smock also said a good number of local businesses and individuals have indicated they will help get the fish tourist place started. The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce likes the plan enough to make the fish hatchery preservation committee a division of the chamber.

In their proposal to the DNR, the committee said they are not trying to re-invent the wheel with their ideas. Mecosta County has turned the old Paris fish hatchery into a self-supporting tourist attraction and the Grayling hatchery was a good tourist attraction for years before it closed in the mid-60's.

The hatchery was started in 1914 when Rasmus Hanson donated the property to the Grayling Fish Hatchery Club. It was sold to the state in 1926 for $10,000. For 40 years after that, the DNR stocked the Ausable and Manistee rivers with trout raised in the hatchery. Stricter requirements for raising fish helped close the Grayling hatchery.

Now, the preservation committee wants to bring back fish into the raceways - but just as a tourist attraction. They have no plans for commercial raising of any fish and current DNR regulations would not allow it at the East Branch hatchery.

One side benefit of the tourist site however, would be East Branch trout could come into the tourist site freely to feed. The old hatchery had open runways for East Branch fish and as a result of the easy food they

It's News Here!

Doremire Named Citizen of the Year

Llwyn "Tony" Doremire, a native of Grayling, was named "Citizen of the Year" by the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Doremire, 41, was named for his contributions during the last year as well as contributions throughout his years in Grayling.

He currently is fire chief of one of the best trained volunteer fire departments in northern Michigan. Additionally, he is co-ordinator of the volunteer Crawford County Ambulance Corps, which has ten trained emergency medical technicians Doremire said he would compare against any others in the state.

Doremire also is an instructor in C.P.R. and First Aid. He has instructed more than 1,000 persons in Crawford County in C.P.R. and recently two persons trained by Doremire helped two heart attack victims.

Besides C.P.R. instruction, Doremire teaches E.M.T. to ambulance crews in a six-county area.

Doremire, the son of Nina Doremire and the late Llwyn Doremire, is also on the Red Cross Board of Directors and he is a past President of the Alumni Association of Grayling High School.

Doremire, who said the honor of being chosen "Citizen of the Year" hasn't sunk in yet, praised Grayling for its support of fund drives for Jaws of Life equipment and a new ambulance. He also praised the community for its great response in C.P.R. training.

"You can't teach anyone about C.P.R. if they don't show up for training sessions," Doremire said. "I'm really pleased with the number of people that come for C.P.R. training."

He enjoys fly fishing and all kinds of hunting when he's not taking care of the community's needs. He worked with the National Guard for 17 years before retiring with a job-related injury.

He married Diana Blaine on January 23, 1960, and they have four children, Julie, 20, Michael, 19, Thane, 16, and Tony, Jr., 9.

Stolen Van Recovered; Sheriff's Dept. Open House

The Crawford County Sheriff's Department have recovered a van stolen from Fivenson Food Equipment in Traverse City.

The van was discovered by a youth on a trail off M-75 by Danish Landing in Grayling Township. Anyone seeing this van occupied while in this area is asked to call the Sheriff's dept.

In other county police news, the sheriff's office will be holding its first open house August 1, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. during the Milltown Festival. The public is invited to view the facility and equipment. Officers will be on hand to answer questions.

Crime prevention posters drawn by elementary and middle school students will also be on display at the sheriff's office and judging for the poster contest will take place August 1st.

Milltown Dress Up Contest

Do you have Grandma's Wedding Dress, Auntie's Garden Dress, Cousin Sally's underwear? Good, we are trying to have all the Crawford County People dress for the Milltown Festival.

There will be a contest on the Courthouse Lawn at 3 p.m. Saturday, August 1st. Prizes will be given as follows: 1st prize - Best Couple; 2nd prize - Most Original Male and Female; and 3rd prize - Children. The Judges will be from the R.S.V.P.

Airport Manager Asks County for Extra Help

By Jon Thompson

Grayling McNamara Airport manager Al Livrance has asked the Crawford County Board of Commissioners to fill an employee position at the airport left open since a C.E.T.A. worker was laid off the end of June.

Commissioners, at their regular meeting June 23, agreed another employee could be used at the airport, but they didn't know where they could find any money to hire someone.

Livrance, a volunteer manager of the airport, asked the board for approval to hire a maintenance worker for 22 weeks - from August 1 until the end of the year.

Livrance said at the minimum wage of $5.02 an hour for a county employee, the total of wages for the rest of the year would be $4,417.60. Fringe benefits would add to $1,331.28, making a total of $5,748.88.

"We've been swamped out there since our full-time C.E.T.A. worker left," Livrance said. "We've got a lot of work left to do on equipment before winter comes and this is one of the busy times for air traffic out there."

Currently, the county has two full-time workers at the airport, and two part-time workers from a Social Services program - one works about 15 days a month and the other works about 5 days a month.

Jeannette Kitchen, chairman of the board, turned the request over to Walt Nowak, head of the Finance Committee. Nowak said he will explore the possibilities of the county picking up an employee for the airport through a manpower or educational program at no cost or only half cost to the county.

In other county news, Herluf Moshier, of Grayling, questioned the purchase of a new switchboard telephone system by the county. Moshier asked if the savings of the new system compared to the old system would cover the salary of a switchboard operator that would have to be hired.

Commissioner Mary Harland said the new switchboard system can save the county money and time in many ways.

Equipment costs will be about $20 a month less with the new system. Additionally, the new system will cut down on long distance rates. Calls to Lansing - which make up the bulk of long distance charges - will only cost 17 cents a minute compared to 54 cents a minute with the old system. Calls to Otsego and Roscommon County will no longer be long-distance calls with the new system.

Commissioner Larry Mattis also said the old system is time-consuming for county employees and persons calling.

"On the old system, about 70 percent of all county calls are going to the county clerk's office," Mattis said. "To reach other offices, clerk employees have to walk down there or tell the caller to hang up and re-dial a different number. A lot of people are very unhappy when they call here long distance and we tell them to hang-up and re-dial."

Mattis said although the new system provides better services and saves the county money, the county may have to hire someone to run the switchboard.

"It isn't a switchboard like most people would image, though," Mattis said. "It's only as big as a large typewriter and a person could wear a headset and answer calls while typing. It would only take two or three seconds to route each call through so the person running it would have plenty of time to do other things."

Kitchen said the switchboard operator will probably also run the county copy machine, stamp machine, and serve as secretary for the county commissioners.

"The county commissioner's secretary position is one we were going to fill soon anyways," Kitchen said. "We just have too much county business to take care of without a secretary."

The new system is expected to be installed sometime in November or December of this year.

In Record Time Baker Captures 4th Canoe Marathon

By Jon Thompson

Big John Baker, of Grayling, and his partner Ken Brown, of St. Clair Shores, surprised everyone by jumping off to a fast pace in the 34th Annual Ausable Marathon Canoe Race last Friday night.

His competitors, chasing after the title Baker won in 1980, 1978, and 1976, expected Baker to lay back in the pack and make his move late in the race.

Instead, Baker 37, and Brown 23, started off fast and never slowed down. They broke a record for the 240-mile race by more than 11 minutes, coming in at Oscoda at 14 hours, 29 minutes, and 1 second.

"We really didn't have any plan to start off so fast," Baker said. "We were just following Jeff (Kolka) and Dave (Shepherd) and they were going good."

Baker and Brown overtook Kolka and Shepherd between Wakeley and McMasters Bridge and held first place the rest of the way. By the Alcona Dam they found out they were ahead of the record time and they decided to shoot for the record.

"We figured we might as well go for it," Baker said. "We were going to feel miserable anyways for the rest of the race."

Baker said the early fast pace might have worried him except he was in better shape this year than the last two years.

Baker and Brown broke the record, set in 1974 by Jerry and Jeff Kellogg, despite low water. Ron Williams, of Canada, who teamed with Baker to win last year, was one of several racers who said there wouldn't be any records broken this year.

Brett Stockton, 18, of Grayling, and Allen Rudquist, of Minnesota, finished second at 14 hours, 50 minutes, and 15 seconds - the sixth fastest time ever. "We kept pushing ourselves hoping Baker might make a bad mistake or get sick," Stockton said. Stockton, who was racing to be the youngest champion ever, put his canoe in the river

WIN MARATHON CANOE RACE—John Baker of Grayling (front) and Ken Brown of St. Clair Shores came home the winners in the annual Grayling to Oscoda marathon canoe race and they did it faster than anyone else in the history of the race, shaving 11 minutes off the old record. Baker and Brown finished the 240 miles in 14 hours and 29 minutes. For Baker, it was the fourth time he has won the event, his second championship in a row and his fourth win in the last six years. Unique Graduation Proves Course
Is Success For Ohio Guardmembers

(Special to the Avalanche)

An unusual graduation ceremony at Camp Grayling's parade field last Sunday, July 26, marked the end of a unique course for members of the 73D Infantry Brigade (Separate), Ohio Army National Guard.

Before a crowd of over 300 well-wishers and special guests, students of the Primary Non Commissioned Officer Course for Reserve Components (PN-COC/RC) demonstrated skills they had learned in the course.

First, in a maneuver called an air insertion, four students who are members of the Brigade's Pathfinder Detachment, rappelled on the field from a helicopter hovering at 100 feet.

The Pathfinders established a landing zone then guided two helicopters carrying two squads - about ten men - in for a landing. The students departed the aircraft using defensive skills they had learned in the course.

Meanwhile, from the other side of the parade field, the rest of the students demonstrated various types of overland squad formations a soldier might use in a combat-related situation.

The students came to the ceremony directly from the field where they had just completed a 48-hour exercise in patrolling. Still in full battle dress and camouflage face paint, the 104 soldiers eagerly accepted their certificates of completion from Brigade commander Brig. Gen. Andrew G. Skalkos.

Five students were singled out for their exceptional performance in the course. Honor graduate was Spec. 4 Robert L. McPherson. Other outstanding graduates were: Most Improved-Spec. 4 Jose A. Denizard; Best, Land Navigation-SSgt. Darryl R. Trace; Best, Tactics-Spec. 4 Kenneth L. Post; Best, Patrolling-Spec. 4 Philip C. Shockley.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Command Sergeant Major Jack Barker from the U.S. Army Mobilization Readiness Region VI, Ft. Knox, Ky.

Also attending the ceremony in addition to other dignitaries was Major General James C. Clem, Ohio's Adjutant General.

Buckeye Brigade
Arrives at Camp Grayling

(Special to the Avalanche)

Nearly 3,000 Ohio Guardmembers arrived at Camp Grayling Saturday, July 25, to begin their annual two weeks of training. The units are elements of the 73D Infantry Brigade (Separate), headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, and commanded by Brig. Gen. Andrew G. Skalkos.

As a "separate" brigade, the 73D is like a complete army division miniature. If need be, it could be self-sustaining.

The heart of the Brigade is three infantry battalions, backed by a field artillery battalion, a support battalion, a cavalry (tanks) troop, a signal platoon, an engineering company, a detachment of pathfinders and an air guard weather flight. In addition, while at Camp Grayling, the Brigade will be training with outside agencies such as the 501st Infantry Battalion, U.S. Army, and the 705th Transportation Company and the 121st Military Intelligence Detachment, both U.S. Army Reserve units.

One of the special training programs the Brigade will be sponsoring is a Jumpmaster Course for nine members of the 77th Pathfinder Detachment.

The course is unique because the training is being conducted by members of the 73D Brigade rather than an outside unit. According to MSgt. (P) Arthur A. Hutchins, the course coordinator and one of three instructors, setting up the program was the logical thing to do.

"We had men who needed the training and the men qualified to do the training," he said. "We kept the course within the Brigade and saved ourselves and our troops a lot of time and money."

During the first eight days of camp, the men will be making over 20 jumps, including several night jumps.

Grayling Twp.
Planning Move

Grayling Township needs a little more elbow room.

The township currently rents three rooms in the Grayling City Hall and township officials say there isn't enough room. Township Supervisor Bernie Fowler said the township may need an extra 2000 feet of office space.

Fowler said there's no room for expansion at the City Hall so it's pretty definite the township will be moving its offices. Where and when they'll move won't be known for a while.

"We're just in the planning stages right now to try and figure out what our needs might be," Fowler said. "We're just trying to look ahead."

The township board has been discussing two options of where they might move to.

One option is to rent the former Bear Museum at Hanson Hills.

"One benefit of renting the museum would be adding security to Hanson Hills," Fowler said. "There's so much vandalism at the park, having a full-time operation there would help stop some of it."

Fowler also said having offices at the park would also help justify any financial assistance the township gives to the Grayling Recreational Authority, which runs the park.

The township board also talked about building a small office building at the Grayling Township Compactor site. Benefits there would be increasing compactor site hours to five-days a week. Additionally, the township may be able to work out an agreement with the Little League officials for a multi-use parking lot.

The township has money in a township improvement fund which can be used for building a township hall.

Fowler stressed, however, no decisions have been made yet and all planning is in the early stages.

From Our Corner ...

Do you want to enjoy your self this weekend? You don't have to look any further than Grayling...there are four big days planned for everyone during Grayling's Eighth annual Milltown Festival...the festival is the offspring of Grayling's Centennial Celebration in 1972 and has been growing bigger every year since...there won't be the beard contest for the gentlemen, but, there will be a contest for those who wish to dress up in olden days garb for both men and ladies...the 4-H Group in Crawford County is planning a tremendous celebrity auction on the County Building lawn...there will be painting exhibitions...there will be all kinds of festivities during the four days that we are sure you will enjoy...the finale for the big weekend will be the Milltown Parade slated to start at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, August 2nd and plans to be one of the finest...a complete schedule of events appears on page 1.

An idle thought...after this weekend we have only four weeks until the Labor Day weekend, and that just about takes care of our summer of 1981...what a horrible thought...

We just had word from Captain McNamara, Skipper of the USS ZEBRA that everything was just about ready for the shark-marlin fishing trip that was bid on at the Mercy Hospital Auction a few weeks ago...plans are now for either Aug. 5, 6 or 7th but a definite date will be announced later...the Skipper said that he had engine trouble a couple Sundays ago, and hopes to have that corrected by this weekend...he also said that Irv McIsaac, Deck Hand, would be available for the trip now that he hasn't the excuse that he has to play golf somewhere...so it looks like the big fishing day is about to arrive...

This year's Milltown Festival will also bring an event that is exciting for the participants and the spectators alike...we speak of the 2nd annual Northern National Bank's 6 mile Milltown Run...this again is bringing in more participants...and as an added attraction there will be a fun run starting at 9:30 a.m. of 2 miles, the main event will start on Saturday on Peninsular Ave. by the Grayling State Bank...we understand that the Avalanche will be represented in the big race by Jon Thompson, our new staff writer who replaced Joe Schrader when Joe took a job in Holland, Michigan as a personal director for a company there...no way are we going to get into the run...last winter we even renege on a basketball free throw contest...those days are past for the ol' fella...

Right now we have the Monday night blues...we had them earlier this morning and fought through them, but now it is an all together ball game...we're fighting time and space with this turkey for this week...there are some weeks it is a breeze and then others, we wish we had stayed in bed on Monday...

We have watched with wonder all day as the carnival people looked like they were going to set up shop on the vacant side of Norway Street...but with a few conferences they found a home for their rides and etc. behind the county library...as we think about it, this has to take a certain type of person to travel all over by just packing up from one town and move on to another town every week...

Here is another tid bit from the Las Vegas Sun...You Know You're in Trouble when...they pay your wages out of petty cash...

We mentioned earlier about Monday...well we have had a chipmunk running all around the back part of the building earlier, now we just had a lady stop to tell us a little baby rabbit just came in our front door and we can't find him, it will be something to look forward to Tuesday morning...at least these two are better than the skunk we had in our other building...

This does it for the turkey this week...goodnight T.J., Stef and Amber...and to all our readers who can make it...come join in Grayling's 8th annual Milltown Festival this weekend...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

DEVOLUTION OF MAN Part 3 Romans 1:28-32

The Bible makes it clear that a society which accepts homosexuality is a society entering the last stage of Devolution of man. In this last stage man is totally given over to immorality. "And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient." Romans 1:28. At this point man abandons God in his thinking and God abandons man to a reprobate mind.

The practices which characterize a society abandoned by God are as follows: "Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whispers, backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful." Romans 1:29-31. Secular Humanism is already laying the groundwork for such a society in America.

People who reject the God of creation for evolution, and the God of the Bible for Secular Humanism are aware of the consequences of judgment and death. "Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them." Romans 1:32. Contrary to the combined efforts of the liberal preachers, evolutionists and humanists to discredit and disprove capital punishment for certain crimes against society, They all know down deep inside that a Holy God is going to bring judgment, death and eternal damnation to all who practice such sins.

A society which will not punish individuals for crimes against society, is disobeying God's Word and bringing a greater delayed judgment of God upon all that society. Liberal judges who refused to punish criminals according to the laws of our society a few years ago are now faced with uncontrolled crime and criminals. It is time to reverse the humanist trend which pleases the individual criminal and punishes society, and return to the God ordained function of government to punish evil and praise good. Romans 13:1-7.

Remember, God will punish sin. Parents may reject their God ordained instructions to paddle their children for disobedience. Governments may reject their God ordained instructions to punish criminals. Churches may reject their God ordained instructions to discipline members for public sin. Society will suffer a form of Hell upon earth for her failure to obey God. Though an individual is never spanked by his parents; disciplined by his church; or punished by his government for wrongdoing - he cannot escape the eternal wrath of a Holy God in the fire of Hell forever and ever. ## Achievement Day Saturday

By Sue Louchart

The big day for the Crawford County 4-H Clubs will be during the Milltown Festival August 1st on the Crawford County Courthouse lawn from 11 to 4.

The 4-H members projects they have been working on all year will be judged from 10 to 11. The projects of the members are not in competition with other members of the club. Each project will be judged on its own merits. All members of a club can receive blue ribbons for their projects or all red or white. Some clubs like the softball club do not have the projects to display but have participated actively in a club will receive participation ribbons. All ribbons received by the members are very important to each one. The clubs set goals each fall for the year and Achievement Day is a chance for the members to show the public the goals achieved.

The community has been very supportive of the 4-H program here in Crawford County. The program has grown in leaps and bounds. The support of the 4-H program is helping the members to become stronger and better citizens. The program is a way for kids and adults to learn by doing and have fun at the same time.

You are all invited to come down to the Courthouse and see the accomplishments of the 4-H members in your community. You will be glad you did and will be pleased with what you see has been done by the members this past year.

County Receives
$15,178 for
Marine Programs

Crawford County will receive more than $15,000 from the DNR for its Marine Safety program. A total of $134,542.15 is being reimbursed to 19 northern counties for their 1980 Marine Safety Programs.

These programs provide water safety education, marine law enforcement, search and rescue programs, and boat safety inspections.

Michigan law authorizes the Department of Natural Resources to return up to two-thirds of the money counties spend on their Marine Safety Programs. Out of the 19 counties, only Cheboygan County spent more on its marine safety programs than Crawford County.

Military officials said no live ammunition was to be used during that Wednesday night training exercise.

Detective Charles Haas, of the Crawford County Sheriff's Department, said the shooting appeared to be accidental because a blank adaptor on the M-16 was not removed. He said under most circumstances the barrel would have exploded if live ammunition was fired.

"Cooperative Extension Service programs are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin or sex."

By Sue Louchart

Hi! I'm Chris Clover here with news from the Crawford County 4-H Clubs.

With Achievement Day Saturday all the clubs are very busy putting the final details on their displays and projects. Projects will be judged from 10 to 11 and then on display to the public from 11 to 4.

The Hoof Beats and the Small Farm Animals have been busy organizing a Petting Corral for the children in the area to come and touch under supervision live animals. I heard many of the animals will be ones born this spring and summer. What a wonderful experience for the young children in this community. Nice going 4-H'ers!

Jean Schmidt's Swimmers are to put on a swimming demonstration and the Let Me Be Me Club has been busy with modeling the items for the Auction. Displays are going together from the Softball Club, Leader Dogs for the Blind, Challenge, and many other clubs to show what they have achieved in the past year. The kitchens of the cooking club and cake decorating club have been smelling of goodies.

The Clown Club will be clowning around the Courthouse Lawn throughout the day. The members of the Needlecraft Club will be demonstrating how they do some of the skills they have learned to people who come by their display.

Reminder to swimmers that the last day of swimming will be August 10th and 12th. Parents, we thank you again for your support of our summer swimming program. We hope to continue the program this winter but the prospects of finding a pool does not look good. Any help anyone can give to locate a pool for the children to use would be greatly appreciated.

Don't forget our great teachers of our fish Jean Schmidt and her daughter Jessie. They give so much of themselves to the program and without them there would not be a program at all.

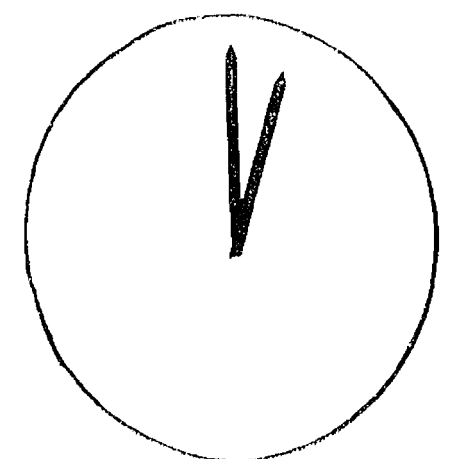

If anyone would like to join one or more of the many clubs or start a new club call the 4-H Office at 348-5123 and let Ann know. See you!

$100,000 In A Flash

Jam and Jell
Pectin is the ingredient that makes the jams "jam" and the jellies "jell."

Dill
They were making pickles as early as the 17th Century.

Lottery Commissioner William M. Nugent announced today, "The new instant game, Michigan Lottery, $100,000. Imagine the excitement of scratching a ticket and finding you have won $100,000." The game starts on Tuesday, July 21, 1981, with over $9 million in cash prizes and 22.5 million tickets.

Another unique feature of the "Cash In A Flash" game is that it will not have a Grand Drawing. "This game makes the money normally reserved for Grand Prizes available to every player," Nugent said. "By eliminating the Grand Drawing we are able to create more and bigger 'instant' prizes." The game will have nearly 6.4 million winners with prizes ranging from one ticket to $100,000. Each ticket has six prize spots. Match three spots and you win that prize. The overall odds of purchasing a winning ticket is about one in four (1:3.53).

Lottery agents will redeem winners of 1 Ticket, $2, $5, $10 and $20. Tickets winning $100 or $500 may be claimed at a Lottery Claim Center, Lottery Regional Offices, or Lottery Central in Lansing. All $100,000 winners should be claimed at a Regional Office or Lottery Central.

Lottery agents can help players find the nearest Lottery Claim Center or Regional Lottery Office. Lottery offices are located in the following cities:

GRAYLING, County Building (517) 348-7601

LANSING, 6545 Mercantile Way (517) 373-6350

MARQUETTE, 105 E. Washington (906) 228-6200

OAK PARK, 1339 West Nine Mile (313) 399-0424

PORTAGE (Kalamazoo), 5232 Portage Road (616) 382-6670

SAGINAW, 310 Johnson, Downtown Saginaw Mall (517) 755-6537

Instant winners who file a claim for their winnings will be paid by check once their ticket has been validated and approved for payment. The check should arrive approximately three weeks after placing the claim.

Languages of the World
The number of world's spoken languages is getting smaller.

Today's total is still impressive, although linguists disagree on exact numbers. Most counts range from 3,000 to above 5,000, depending on how many are classified as separate languages or as dialects of the same language.

Strolling Around Town

All of you know that my strolls include the golf course and how nice to see activity across the river at the Fred Bear house. Welcome to Grayling, whoever you are. When things are close, it's hard to see them and I have neglected to mention the canoe liveries that are so close to me. Penrod's have a lot of colorful petunias, Borchers flowers line the front porch, Jolly Redskin has yellow marigolds in their planter and a peek at Carlisle's gave us a glimpse of flowers and new terracing. Most of the liveries do a very nice job of keeping up their places.
The Bill Sorenson home has a new and unusual fence and some very pretty pansies. The Lavracks on Park Street have a lot of planters full of flowers as do the Larry Hunters on Chestnut. Bob Holzmans have a well-kept yard and they were fighting the birds on their raised strawberry bed — who won? The Derek McEvers have their planter full of petunias again and they are getting a start on ground cover in their front yard. Trees are beautiful but occasionally they do create problems in trying to grow lawns. The Earl Whaleys have completed their front porch and up on Peninsular Duane Petrie has been spending his vacation wielding a paintbrush to improve their home, the old Michelson house. It's a lovely old home and we're happy to see them caring for it.

Governor Says Tanner Wrong In Not Sending Surveillance Records

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

An Executive Office report to the Senate concluded that Department of Natural Resources Director Howard Tanner erred in not consulting with either the Legislature or the attorney general when he decided not to send out air and water pollution surveillance fees bills prior to the statutory February 1 deadline.

The report, however, also noted there was confusion in the statutes, requiring both the February 1 billing and a fee increase to be enacted by February 28.

The surveillance program's budget included revenues from a proposed fee increase, but the Legislature failed to enact the fee increase to accompany the budget.

Tanner decided to wait for legislative action on the fee increase, disregarding the February 1 deadline so billings for 1981 could reflect the increased amount.

The Legislature did not complete action on the surveillance fee bills until late June.

The report said that the confusion did not justify Tanner's decision to delay the billings and he should have sought advice from Attorney General Frank Kelley and the legislative leaders.

Governor William G. Milliken added that air and water pollution fee payers benefitted by being able to hold onto their money until fees were clearly resolved in new legislation.

Tanner's failure to send out the billings by the statutory deadline was brought to the attention of the Legislature by Senator Joseph Mack (D-Ironwood), long-time critic of the Department of Natural Resources and its top administration, specifically Tanner.

Mack called for the Senate to demand that legal proceedings be instituted against Tanner and charged him with "non-feasance, mis-feasance and malfeasance" in office.

Instead of proceeding on its own, the Senate decided to request the governor conduct the study to determine whether any wrong doing occurred. The governor was given 60 days to complete the report or the Senate would levy charges.

Mack was angered at the report, maintaining it showed Tanner demonstrated "non-feasance and malfeasance." He added the report was a "damn coverup for a damn poor administrator."

The billing incident will be part of an investigation a special Senate committee will conduct into the department's management, Mack said. The committee, chaired by Mack, will study the department to see how it is run.

The report to the Senate included a letter from Tanner outlining the steps he took before deciding not to send the fee bills. The fees are charged to businesses emitting substances into air and water and help finance the air and water quality budgets within the department.

"I had to weigh a very difficult administrative decision with profound implications regardless of the choice. I decided, therefore, to wait, expecting that legislative action would clear up the confusion and direct us on how much to bill and to whom. With the benefit of hindsight, I erred in not seeking legislative guidance," Tanner said.

The report concluded that Tanner was placed in an "untenable position of being accused of violating one or the other statute" because of the legislatively-created conflict.

Mack charged the executive office report is only "a flowery coverup. It's a slap on the wrist when I would have given him a swift kick in the butt."

Lovells Township Considering Mobile Home Ordinance

The Lovells Zoning Board has presented a proposed ordinance to the township board outlining areas where mobile homes may be placed. The board is looking over the proposed ordinance and will probably act on it at its next regular meeting August 11.

The board is also considering a request from a township resident to revise township fire run fees. One of the suggestions in the request is to charge for false fire runs.

Several residents at the July 14 township board meeting asked about military use of certain roads in the township. Some residents claimed military vehicles were using public roads and they questioned if the military paid any money to the county for maintenance of roads.

The board is having Township Supervisor Fred Schablik look into matter.

Masons to Meet

There will be a regular meeting of Masonic Lodge F & AM on Thursday, August 6th. Pot luck dinner at 6:30. Lodge opens at 7:30.

Lovells Riverside Record at 17-0

Lovells Riverside Tavern pulled out of its short midseason slump with two league victories, defeating Micheway Campground 13-7 and Roberts Boring 16-4 last week in Gaylord.

Craig Hinkle, Gary Fox, Jack Noiro, and Mike Money all had hot bats with Joe Thompson and Bruce Burdett adding key hits.

Lovells puts its undefeated record, 17-0 in Gaylord league play, on the line this week in a big game with Ed's Hot Oiling of Gaylord.

Although Lovells is undefeated in league play, they went through a slump at the plate in recent tournaments.

Lovells placed third in tournament at Petoskey. Only Jim Tobin, who was named the tournament's most valuable hitter, and Steve Houlton had success at the plate.

At the Alpenfest tournament in Gaylord, Lovells again struggled at the plate and wound up placing seventh in the 24-team tournament. Dale Papendick, Houlton, Hinkle, and Fox lead the team in hitting while Money added key hits.

Camp Grayling Ideal for Training

In the year since our last visit to the Grayling area, the 73D Infantry Brigade (Separate), Ohio Army National Guard, has made tremendous strides in terms of readiness and unit strength.

During the two weeks at Camp Grayling, our troops will hone skills in the classroom and in the field. This training is vitally important to the fulfillment of our mission.

The support we receive from the community only enhances our stay here. On behalf of the more than 3,000 Brigade members training at Camp Grayling, I wish to extend my thanks for your hospitality.

You have made us feel welcome.

Brig. Gen. Andrew G. Skalkos

Youth Service Director Resigns

By Fay Bovee

Debbie Larson has left as Director of Youth Service Bureau after eighteen months in Grayling and is assuming a position with Northern Michigan Mental Health Services serving Roscommon, Gladwin, Clare and Arenac counties.

She cites as some of her accomplishments while she was here: moving to a larger location from Cedar Street to M-72
West where they are now located; more professional services for county youth; expanding the program to include Oscoda county; starting an extensive tutoring service for youth, principally with Middle School students five days a week; and starting in 1980, the recreational ten-week summer program, which included canoeing, roller-skating,

biking, and workshops for babysitting, karate, etc. This also included field trips to educational civic institutions and overnight camping trips. She expanded the budget so as to employ full-time people and started first aid and CPR classes for Youth Services.

Before coming to Grayling she had completed her bachelor's degree in social work at Central Michigan University, spent one year with the Department of Social Services in the protective service department in Crawford County, and had six months experience working with adolescents with substance abuse problems in Harrison.

In her new job with the health services she will be a coordinator for the teenage pregnancy program, in prevention, prenatal and post-natal care.

She says that she has enjoyed her work with the Youth Services in Grayling and hopes that it continues to grow and also expand to include Roscommon County.

Real Dairy Products

Aren't dairy products real any more? The answer is "yes," says Jean Howe, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Purdue University, but you have to look for the genuine dairy products.

The United Dairy Industry Association has developed a seal, the "Real" seal, to appear on all genuine dairy products. The symbol is a red milk drop in the center.

This product identification program was developed to help consumers distinguish between genuine dairy products and imitation or modified products. Today, consumers are easily confused by similar packaging for both types of food.

Until all companies are using the "Real" seal, shoppers should check the labels for product content.

Dr. William Diedrich and the Crawford AnSable School District for the use of their facilities.

To the Aztec and Tripper bands for their outstanding effort at the 1981 Rock-A-Thon.

Tom Brogger and the members of the Grayling Country Club for a fine golf tournament.

The Youth Services Bureau (especially Debbie Larson and Carla Nolph) for all their kindness and patience.

The local news media (especially Wayne Hindmarsh) for their outstanding coverage of the entire Super Summer Festival.

Most of all, to all our volunteers and participants especially those involved with the 1981 Rock-A-Thon. Thanks to you, there wasn't any trouble or any incidents, just fun and music.

On behalf of the Sibs for Kids program and the youth we strive to serve, thank you!!!

Detroit & Mackinac Railway Subject of Article

MILWAUKEE, WIS.—The Detroit & Mackinac Railway (D&M) is featured in an article in the August issue of TRAINS magazine, the magazine of railroading. Ron Cady of Maple Grove Lane in Cheboygan, Michigan, is the author of the article, "Farewell to the maroon and gray." (The title refers to the D&M switching its color scheme from maroon and gray to green).

Cady's illustrated article includes a map and a locomotive roster. He points out that the D&M is "a solvent carrier with good traffic both inbound and outbound." On April 1, 1976, the Detroit & Mackinac took control of Penn Central's Bay City-Mackinaw City line. This increased the D&M's mainline mileage from 262 to 400.

TRAINS is the leading publication for railroad enthusiasts, with a worldwide circulation of 72,758. The August issue is available now at newsstands and hobby shops in your area.

*Average monthly circulation for 12 months ending December 31, 1980, as filed with the Audit Bureau of Circulations, subject to audit.

Vigoda to Appear at CC Playhouse

Abe Vigoda has returned to the Cherry County Playhouse Rehearsal Hall to begin work on the Playhouse's next production, "NEVER TOO LATE". Abe, who has endeared himself to many as the lovable Detective Fish on TV's "Barney Miller," and later on his own show "Fish," is very pleased to return to the Grand Traverse area. Many will remember him for his appearance at CCP in Neil Simon's "Sunshine Boys" in 1975. In all, Abe has appeared in some 100 theatrical productions, 85 television programs, and in the movies—among them Neil Simon's "Cheap Detective" with Peter Falk, and "The Godfather" and "The Godfather Part II."

In "Never Too Late," Abe will portray a middle-aged husband who discovers to his surprise and his daughter's dismay, that he is soon to be a father again. Laughs abound as Abe insists that it is "Never Too Late."

Vigoda will appear at the Playhouse from July 28-August 2. For ticket information about CCP's season, which runs through August, call (616) 947-9560.

"Continental" to Sing in Grayling August 3

The "Continental Singers with the Continental Brass," currently on their yearly 75-day summer tour, will present a live concert of contemporary Christian music on Monday, August 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Mount Hope Lutheran Church, 3 miles north of Grayling.

Blending contemporary gospel music, spirituals, anthems, and hymn arrangements, this year's program entitled "COME TRUST THE LORD," will feature favorite hymns and choruses and many new songs as well.

The 20 vocalists and 20-piece orchestra are talented musicians selected by audition from thousands of high school and college-age young people across the nation and in foreign countries. Auditions are held after each local concert for singers, instrumentalists and technical staff for the following summer. The program has proven so popular among young performers wanting to join the tours that they have grown from one group in 1967 to fifteen groups this year.

Since Cam Floria organized the first group, various editions of the "Continental Singers and Orchestra" have appeared over 6,000 times in the U.S. and made over 1700 foreign appearances before more than 4 million people. Traveling from 100 to 500 miles seven days a week by bus, boat and plane, they perform nightly during the summer tour. Concerts are held in churches, auditoriums, outdoor pavilions, military bases and hospitals. They are completely self-contained with their own sound and lighting equipment.

The group which is coming to Grayling is directed by Jim Chaffee, who is in his fifth year as a Continental director. This summer his group will be touring across the U.S., and in Rome, Florence, Paris, and Warsaw, Poland. Other groups are appearing in twenty-seven other foreign countries, and throughout the United States.

Financing for this non-profit group headquartered in Thousand Oaks, California, is unique. Each member raises part of his or her expenses on his own, with the remainder being supplied by local churches and organizations. The concert to be held August 3 in Grayling is financed by a free-will offering with no admission charged. Many of their 17 record albums recorded on the Word, Light, and New Life labels will be available, including their latest, "Come Trust the Lord."

Music lovers of all ages from Grayling and neighboring communities are welcome to share in this inspiring evening, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at Mt. Hope Lutheran Church.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

The other night I was showing a film on Snow Geese to the campers at the Park. Such a program, be it a film, a series of slides or the identification of various stars, is known as an evening program. The audience was properly engrossed in the film, which has excellent footage of the Snows, but my attention was drawn to an on-and-off blinking light beyond the screen and, with its recognition, a whole flood of memories came back. That little blinking greenish-yellow light came from a firefly which was winding its way along the pines in search of his Lady Love. I am sure many reading this will recall how when, as youngsters, they ran here and there in the darkness of their backyards with a glass jar, whose top was punctured with holes, capturing dozens of those winking, blinking insects. The light generated by a couple dozen such beetles was as good as a night light when you were finally ushered off to bed by Mother and Dad. As kids, we bragged about how many we had caught to other kids in the neighborhood and perhaps the advent of firefly time was a boon to parents in a day before TV. Those fireflies surely kept us occupied, so much so, in fact, that I do not recall the mosquitoes that must have plagued us on those warm kid-happy evenings years ago.

Fireflies are not numerous in the land of the Tall Timber, but I wish they were, because I would like to introduce today's youngsters to a glass jar full of magic.

Kessler Named Controller

Roger Kessler has been elected controller of the Dow Chemical Co. beginning August 1.

Kessler joined Dow as an accountant in 1959. He became chief accountant in the Michigan Division in 1969 and was named to a similar post in the Texas Division in 1972. He returned to Midland as manager of operations analysis and consolidation in the Corporate Controllers Department in May 1979.

Kessler is a Grayling High School graduate and is the son of Jerome Kessler and the late Mrs. Kessler.

Flash Code

Fireflies often speak in a visual Morse code, a pattern of flashes that differs by species and by sex. A male flies around flashing his message—say, a half-second flash every six seconds—and looks toward the ground until he spots a correctly coded female response. What follows may be a "flash dialogue" before the lights go out for mating.

Leader Dogs

During the past month you may have noticed this group of kids walking their dogs on various roads around Grayling. They form Grayling's 4-H Leader Dogs Club, headed by Nancy Hatfield, and have been out preparing for 4-H Achievement Day.

This year, "Achievement Day" will be held on August 1st, during the Milltown Festival. This is a big day for all 4-H Clubs. Each member is judged on the project he or she has completed during the past year, in their club. Each child has a chance at a 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place ribbon.

One of the things the Leader Dogs will be judged on is their ability to walk in heavy traffic. The Club is pictured above, training their dogs, on highway M-93 near Camp Grayling.

The club will eventually take these dogs down to "Leader Dogs for the Blind" training school in Rochester, Michigan, where the dogs will finalize their training as potential Leader Dogs for a blind person somewhere in the U.S. or other various countries around the world.

Prices to go up December 1

Hanson Park Ski Memberships Now Available

Memberships for the 1981-82 ski season will go on sale this week at Hanson Park, and local skiers are encouraged to purchase their memberships early. Prices for membership have been set by the Grayling Recreation Authority at $90 for students, $110 for adults and $200 for families. Families have been defined by the authority as those persons under the age of eighteen and their parents who reside in one household, the only exception being full time college students.

There are two advantages if ski memberships are purchased early. First of all, on December 1, all memberships will increase in price. On that date, student memberships will go to $112.50, adults to $137.50 and full family memberships will sell for $250. In order to take advantage of the lesser membership rates, local skiers will have to have their memberships purchased, AND PAID FOR, before December 1st. Any memberships not fully paid for by December 1 will be subject to the new rate.

Also, by purchasing ski memberships this early in the season, an installment purchase program can be selected through which the memberships can be purchased for a down payment of $25.00 and the remaining balance prorated into a payment schedule which will be completed prior to December 1st and the planned rate increase.

As an added incentive, a drawing will be held on December 1st from all the fully paid memberships, and the lucky person will have his or her membership money returned, no matter what type of membership is purchased. For more information, you may call the park at 348-9286, or visit the park anytime during the day. Memberships will also be available at the Hanson Park Garage Sale which is planned for Milltown weekend.

A prayer does not have to be made of words. It can be the sketch of a pencil on a drawing board. This one expresses the thoughts and yearnings of the person whose soul grasped the pencil.

Here in your own newspaper you have encountered some unknown artist's depiction of the Christ! That artist's prayer can be your prayer... if it expresses your thoughts... your yearnings.

Such are the riches of our Christian faith that each one of us is strengthened, encouraged, empowered by the devotion of another.

That's why every week you will find us together in worship. We share our prayers. We share our Lord.

Marathon

in seventh place after the running start. They went ahead of Kolka and Shepherd near Mio to take over second place.

Stockton had a large number of spectators urging him on against his older competitors and he said the support helped him and his partner finish in good time.

Kolka and Shepherd were the second team to reach the water at Grayling and paddled into the lead quickly and held it for almost two hours. A faltering light slowed them down, however, and Baker first, then Stockton passed them. They hung on for a third place finish.

Jack Kolka, 47, a Grayling native, racing in his 21st marathon, finished sixth. He's finished second three times in the marathon and ranks third on the all-time ranking list for the AuSable marathon.

Another Grayling team of Bruce McGuire and Jeff March finished the race in 14th place. Two Grayling teams, Kirt Kitchen and Bob Lawe, Tim Krey and Phil Trudgeon, failed to complete the grueling race.

For winning, Baker and Brown collected $1400, Stockton and Rudquist $847, and Kolka and Shepherd $700. Baker and Brown were sponsored by AuSable Construction, Stockton and Rudquist were sponsored by Ray's Canoe Livery, and Kolka and Shepherd were sponsored by Spikes Keg of Nails.

Kolka and Shepherd finished in 15 hours, six minutes, and 44 seconds, Mike Laing, of Ontario, and Rick Joy, of North Branch, finished fourth at 15 hours, 24 minutes, 47 seconds, and Tony Short, of South Branch, and Bob Welsch, of Southgate, finished fifth at 15 hours, 39 minutes, and 12 seconds.

Forest Haines and Jim Myers, of Adrian, won the amateur race.

In the kids canoe races held Friday, Brad Grass and Jeff Nagy took the 11-12 year old race to Louie's Landing. They finished in a time of 1 hour, 9 minutes, and 32 seconds. Scott Mires and John Sullivan finished in 1 hour, 17 minutes, and 21 seconds, and Carrie Trudgeon and Julie Huss finished in 1 hour, 26 minutes, and 57 seconds.

In the 13-14 year old race to Louie's Landing, Claude Halstead and George Duncan finished in 1 hour, 5 minutes, and 31 seconds. Jim Sorenson and John Moggo finished in 1 hour, 10 minutes, and 35 seconds, and Robert Fitzgerald and Dave Blumberg finished in 1 hour, 12 minutes, and 2 seconds. In the 15-17 year old race to Stephens, Mick Lovely and Stacey Kent finished in 1 hour, 43 minutes, and 57 seconds, and Tom Sorenson and Jim Harwood finished in 1 hour, 47 minutes, and 55 seconds.

Hatchery

found inside the fish hatchery, the East Branch used to have some large fish near the hatchery site.

Smock said perhaps the East Branch down to the Mainstream could again be a children's fishing site.

"I think it would be really helpful to young kids who usually don't catch any fish," said Smock. "If that part of the East Branch was amply stocked and open only to children, it would be a great introduction to the sport for them."

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank the Doctors and staff of Mercy Hospital, all my family and friends for their cards, prayers, flowers and visits while I was a patient. Thank you all so much.

ABWA Meeting

Whispering Pines Grayling Charter Chapter of American Business Women's Association held their July meeting at Chief Shoppemagon's Tuesday, July 21st. Mickey Perez offered the invocation and the girls enjoyed a lovely meal of sirloin tips on noodles, salad, rolls, and coffee. July birthdays were acknowledged for Joyce Bourrie, Barb Schulz, and Karen Schlehuber. The vocational speaker was Betty Bennett, secretary at WQON. Two new members, Marlene Ritter, and Margie Mathews, were inducted into the club and presented with white carnations.

Amber Meech, ABWA's scholarship recipient, talked about her first year at Hope College where she is majoring in Chemistry. Her plans are to receive a Bachelors degree and enter the field of Medical Technology. The club also received a thank-you note from Kelly VanNuck, one of ABWA's scholarship recipients for 1981.

The program for July was Maggie Grandmaison, Special Education Instructor in charge of vocational programs for COOR. Maggie is currently involved in a program called PROJECT ON SITE. This program is for special education/special needs students with a 25 maximum student enrollment. These students are taught academics which is designed to improve their academic levels. They also are given the chance to get vocational training in the field of Hospitality Industry and Factory training. Their hospitality training is received at Grayling Holiday Inn where they learn food preparation, dishwashing, maintenance, maid skills, houseman skills and dining room attendant skills. They are paid wages while training at the Holiday Inn and many prior students have been able to find jobs in these fields. The factory training is a new training program which is tentatively scheduled to begin this fall.

The Milltown Festival was discussed concerning the ABWA float entry and the booth which will be located in front of Grayling Restaurant. The booth will be selling craft items and luminizing candles.

Also discussed was the upcoming fashion show which will be October 22 at St. Mary's Hall, and the National ABWA convention which is being held in St. Louis on October 9th and 10th.

The benediction was given by Elaine Harland and the meeting was adjourned at 9:00 p.m.
